EXECUTIVE ORDER N-29-20 (The California Brown Act and Telephonic Meetings): Governor Newsom issued Executive Order N-29-20 that states all requirements of the Brown Act expressly or impliedly requiring the physical presence of Executive Committee members or of the public as a condition of a quorum or public meeting are waived. The 72-hour notice requirement for a regular meeting and the 24-hour notice requirement for a special meeting are still in effect. Members of the Executive Committee could call in to participate in a meeting and would not have to notice their locations. The order is intended to make a telephonic meeting feasible in circumstances where Executive Committee members may be calling in from their residences. The 72-hour notice requirement for a regular meeting and the 24-hour notice requirement for a special meeting are still in effect.
